Chapter Director's Spiel

We hope that you had a very enjoyable New Year and are planning lots of enjoyable things to do in the coming year. And we hope that we will give you many ideas of additional things you can do with your fellow members.

We've started out the new year with a bang, as a new Eagle Wings Motorcycle Association Charter Chapter. We had our annual Ride Planning meeting and received lots of great suggestions of rides for this year, and we're working diligently to finish up a list so we can plug those suggestions into a calendar to send out to each of you. We hope with the good mixture of rides, that there is something on the calendar for everyone's enjoyment. Just remember, for the most part, the rides shown on the Ride Calendar (not counting the different District rallies) are not set in stone, there are many reasons during the year that any ride could be cancelled and/or rescheduled, but we will do our best to keep everyone informed of any changes.

Many of our surrounding Districts are in the process of planning for their annual rally. Some of the Districts are members of the Eagle Wings Motorcycle Association (EWMA), and some of them decided to join the Wing'D Riders Association, but in both cases, they still seem to be working on having a rally this year, and I will keep researching so that I can list those rallies on our chapter Ride Calendar once I know the dates.

If you have questions about how things will work going forward, about the EWMA and how it impacts our own chapter, please feel free to contact me.

Hope you're all doing well, and we hope to see you at some chapter event soon, take care, stay safe,
Brian Richards, TN-M Chapter Director

Polar bear ride, New Year's Day. Butch joined me at Gondolier for lunch. We then rode up 321 to Hwy-70. We took Ladd Wright Rd. to Lawnville, Rd. Just past I-40 we turned down Ladd Landing Way. We then headed north on Kentucky St, which turns into Sugar Grove Valley Rd/ Maya Valley Rd/ Clax Gap Rd. and finally, into Little Emory Rd Ln. We then turned south on Hwy. 61 toward Harriman to Oakdale Hwy. (RTE -328). We then turned on to RTE-299 then onto Camp Austin Rd. We twisted around the back road until we reached the bridge over the Emory River. We stopped and took a break on the bridge to rest and enjoy the scenery. Though not as scenic as in the summer or fall, it is still a very enjoyable stop.

After resting we continued Camp Austin Rd. to White Oak Rd. We weaved around White Oak Rd. to Airport Rd. We then turned down Crab Orchard Cemetery Rd to Clifty Creek Rd. We then turned onto Riggs Chapel Rd to head back to Harriman. We turned onto Pansy Hill Rd and immediately onto Swan Pond Rd down by the Kingston Steam plant. We then headed back down Hwy 70 toward Lenoir City splitting at Hwy 358 (Gallaher Rd.). The day started out overcast, but the sun was breaking through by the end of the ride. Total ride was about 85 miles and a not so polar bear at 55F.
